The 2nd Asian Maritime Law Conference on Arrest, Insolvency and Pre-Emptive Remedies in a Global Shipping Crisis

24 April 2009 | Suntec Singapore | www.amlc.com.sg

About This Event

Since the 1st Asian Maritime Law Conference in 2007, the shipping world has changed dramatically from one that was buoyant in trade and finance to one seriously affected by an ever-growing global recession. With a sudden decrease in consumption, trade and, in turn, the demand for transport has fallen in degrees unseen in decades. Performance issues arise and those involved in shipping need to consider protecting their position. This year, the 2nd Asian Maritime Law Conference, themed “Arrest, Insolvency and Pre-Emptive Remedies in a Global Shipping Crisis”, will focus on what shipping interests can do to provide for their future and/or to take action where action is needed. Speakers ranging from shipping economists, shipfinanciers, and lawyers taking owners, charterers, shippers and other perspectives will share their experiences and outline their view on the prospects of shipping after the crisis.

Singapore Maritime Week 2009

An event under:

SINGAPORE
maritimeweek
2009

18 – 24 April 2009

Singapore Maritime Week (SMW) takes centre stage in 2009, when the 4th edition is held from 18 to 24 April. For the first time, Sea Asia 2009 will be a part of SMW 2009. Other events to look forward to include the 3rd Singapore Maritime Lecture, the International Chemical and Oil Pollution Conference (ICOPCE) 2009, and the Singapore International Maritime Awards (IMA) Gala Dinner. As the leading maritime event in Singapore driven by the Maritime and Port Authority of Singapore (MPA), SMW is a gathering of the international maritime community in Singapore for a week of international conferences, dialogues, exhibitions and social events in celebration of all things maritime. The range of activities and events organised by the MPA, industry and research and education institutions, as well as the cosmopolitan atmosphere and profile of participants, reflect the vibrancy and diversity of Singapore as a major international maritime centre.

SMW has grown in size and significance since the inaugural event in 2006, attracting more participants and event organisers from around the world each year. Participants can experience something new every year, as activities are added to the array of events, and as eminent speakers share their insights and participate in dialogues on topical maritime issues. This dynamism and the good range of issues discussed during SMW are major draws for maritime decisionmakers, as are the many business networking platforms. That is why SMW is all about People, Ideas and Opportunities for the maritime community.

For more information on Singapore Maritime Week, you may visit www.mpa.gov.sg or email to smw@mpa.gov.sg.
